NEIGHBOR

Language is as elastic as a woman's garter—and it can be stretched in one instance to fit any link and in the other almost any situation.

We have been informed ever since the "Lucky" Market located here that it is "OWNED AND OPERATED BY YOUR NEIGHBOR." That statement provoked a derisive and skeptical smile, for frankly we consider it all guff.

It was our opinion that the "Lucky" was just one of those institutions which had fastened itself upon the community with the sole idea of taking dollars out of it and putting back none in return—or so very few that they were of no consequence in our commercial life.

This opinion was strengthened by the fact that of all its 19 employees only four, we are told, are residents of Richmond, the remainder taking their money and spending it elsewhere. Presumably the receipts of the store find their way to some distant spot also. Is this conducive to prosperity in Richmond?

A NEW MEANING
We had a fallacious idea that the word neighbor meant the fellow who lived next door to us or in the immediate vicinity, the one to whom we say good morning as we go to work and good evening when we return home after the hours of toil are over for the day.

But Webster is more liberal in his interpretation of the meaning of the word. In addition to the meaning we have stated, the great lexiconographer in giving more generous boundaries to the word includes "one who is entitled to receive and expect to render kindness." Not being content with that, he quotes (Continued on Page 6)

Bruno Probe Downed By Legislature

TRENTON, N. J., April 6.—UP—The Assembly tonight defeated a resolution asking investigation of the allegations that certain persons and public officials have attempted to obstruct the orderly processes of law in the case of the State vs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

The bill, sponsored by Charles R. Geddes, Republican, was defeated 21 to 23.

Geddes then changed his vote so the resolution could be laid on the table and moved again when he desired. The official vote was thus 22 to 22.

Later, by a vote of 15 to 10, the Assembly defeated a resolution introduced by James Allerdice, Republican, asking a thorough investigation of the Lindbergh case by a committee of three members of each house of the legislature. A similar resolution prepared last week after a conference with Governor Hoffman was not introduced at that time.

Memorial Day Plans Made By Veteran Council

Preparations for the annual observance of Memorial Day were discussed last evening when the Allied War Veterans Council met at the Memorial hall. Barney Kinstry, Legion commander and president of the council, presided.

C. O. Davis and committee from Honor Post, V. F. W., will have charge of arrangements for the celebration. There will be a parade on Macdonald avenue at 9:30 Memorial Day morning; services at Sunset View cemetery with Berkeley veterans at 10:30; a bean feed at noon at Memorial hall and services at St. Joseph's cemetery in San Pablo at 2 o'clock.

On the Sunday preceding Memorial Day—May 24—water services will be held under the direction of Mrs. Ann Zurflgen and members of Elmer Auxiliary.

Members of the Council will attend the annual banquet of the Memorial hall directors on April 22.

ISU LEADER SAYS CHARGE IS FRAME-UP

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—Ivan Hunter, secretary-treasurer of the International Seamen's Union, was arrested tonight and charged with conspiring to kill Earl King, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Marine Firemen, Oilers, Waterfenders and Wipers.

Hunter, whose offices are in Chicago, was arrested in downtown San Francisco after he purportedly admitted plotting to murder King in conversations with Policeman George Hoeg.

CHARGES FRAME-UP
The arrest was termed a perfect "frame-up" by Hunter, who denied the charges. Hunter, police said, would be arraigned in municipal court tomorrow. But Hunter said the charge marked a sensational climax to efforts of the ISU to revoke the charter of the Sailors' Union of the Pacific and take over its property and assets. Revocation of the charter was voted at a recent ISU convention and court action was opened in San Francisco to impound the money and properties of the Sailors' Union.

3 MARKED FOR DEATH
King told officers that Harry Lundberg, secretary of the Sailors' Union, and A. M. Murphy, assistant secretary of the Marine Firemen, and another local maritime union official, also were marked for death.

Hunter denied any plot to put any of the union leaders "on the spot" and denied charges by James O'Neill, a ship worker, that he had given O'Neill money which purportedly was a part of $1000 to be paid for killing King and Lundberg.

P. G. & E. Seeks New Franchise

MARTINEZ, April 6.—The Pacific Gas & Electric company today petitioned the board of supervisors to grant it a general franchise to conduct its electrical business in Contra Costa county, replacing four present franchises with one. The company's petition stated that under the one franchise the county would secure $1500 more revenue annually than it obtains now.

The four present franchises have about 18 years of life. The company asks the one franchise to made for 50 years.

Present franchisees, one of which was issued to Great Western Power company, bring the county $3,000 annually.

Copyright 1936 by United Press. Tornadoes which cut across six states of the deep South Sunday night and Monday morning left a toll of 230 known dead, up to 1000 injured, thousands homeless and property damage estimated at $10,000,000.

Rescue parties were still exploring the debris-littered cities Monday night, and it was believed the death toll would go higher.

From South Carolina to Mississippi and Arkansas, the tornadoes roared down, demolishing homes, factories and officers and public buildings.

MANY DEAD
TUPELO—144 dead; 500 injured; property damage estimated at $1,000,000. Two-thirds of the city's residential district demolished.

GRANADA—Four dead.

BOONEVILLE—Four dead.

GEORGIA
GAINESVILLE—63 known dead with additional bodies being recovered. At least 300 injured. Property damage from winds and fires $5,000,000. Fires which followed the storm were brought under control.

Changes Are Suggested By Underwriters

A letter from the Board of Fire Underwriters read at the meeting of the Council of El Cerrito Monday night recommending various changes for the betterment of the fire department was referred to Fire Commissioner Louis Navillier.

Among the recommendations made was the abandonment of the present fire hose and the erection of two separate fire stations, the purchase of a 500-gallon pumper, the installation of a fire hydrant at Fairmont and San Pablo avenues, and fire hydrants installed for every 1,000 square feet.

Navillier stated that the city, enjoying the same insurance rates as surrounding communities and would not be in favor of making any changes unless it would mean a reduction of rates.

Resignation Of L. A. Townsend Head Demanded

BALTIMORE, M. D., April 6.—UP—The National Board of the O.A.R.P., Ltd., sponsored by Dr. F. E. Townsend, has adopted a resolution demanding the resignation of George H. Higley, president of Club No. 93 in Los Angeles, the largest in the nation, it was announced tonight.

The resolution, which was signed by all board members except Dr. Townsend, accused Higley of "dishonest and disloyal conduct toward not only Dr. Townsend and the board of directors, but toward the Townsend pension organization as well."

Higley, the resolution said, eluded in obtaining the resignation of Walter Townsend, brother of the doctor, on the urging of Earl Clemens, resigned secretary and treasurer of the O.A.R.P. on allegedly fraudulent telegrams.

Court Again Rules F. D. R. Bill Illegal

WASHINGTON, April 6.—UP—The Supreme Court today vigorously condemned "arbitrary" encroachments on personal liberty by government agencies when, in a 6 to 3 opinion, it ruled that the Securities and Exchange Commission could not compel J. Edward Jones, New York promoter, to appear before it for questioning after withdrawal of his registration under the 1933 "truth in securities" act.

EIGHTH REVERSE
The decision marked the New Deal eighth defeat before the Supreme Court. Constitutionality of the act by which President Roosevelt sought to establish the policy of "let the seller beware" in security trading, was not involved, but SEC officials feared the decision might hamper its strict enforcement.

Victim Of Crash Is "Holding Own"

Badly injured in an El Cerrito automobile accident Saturday night, W. F. Goss, 34, of Oakland, was reported slightly improved at an Albany hospital last night.

Goss suffered a fractured skull when he was struck down near Cypress avenue by a car driven by N. O. Turner of Stockton. Turner told police he did not see Goss until it was too late to avoid the crash.

THREE HUGE AIR FLEETS TO COMBINE

LONDON, April 6.—UP—Great Britain, France and Belgium have a complete plan for mutual air, sea and land action in event of an attack by Germany, it was reported today.

It was indicated that in event of any German attack on France or Belgium, the three allied nations would send a gigantic air fleet over Germany to bomb railways and rail terminals, industrial and military centers and most important, airports, with the idea of destroying hundreds of German fighting planes.

GENERALS TO MEET
The report came as members of the three general staffs prepared to meet here this week. The staff officers will merely alter a complete plan to take account of the new situation in the German Rhineland, and the publicity given the meeting is designed to impress Germany with the unity of the three countries.

A survey in connection with the European military situation, coinciding with today's 19th anniversary of the entrance of the United States to the World war, showed about 5,500,000 men under arms—1,500,000 more than in 1914. The (Continued on Page 5)

One Day Strike On Ship Ended

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—A minor one-day strike by sailors on the Willapa, American Hawaiian freighter, brought on by the company's refusal to install running water in the sailors' sleeping quarters, ended today and loading of the vessel was resumed at Buckwalter terminal, Alameda waterfront employers reported.

Police reported a union longshoreman, Frank Seitz, received knife wounds in a battle with unidentified assailants on the San Francisco waterfront in an accident near Rodas, (Continued on Page 5)

Council Told Condition Of Old Buildings

The condition of old buildings at the westside was the subject of a detailed report by Fire Chief W. P. Cooper at the meeting of the Council last evening.

Owners of a brick building on Park place have stated that negotiations for a sale of the property are in progress and if the deal falls they promise that the structure will be placed in proper condition.

The old building at Ninth and Ripley will be razed in the near future. This assurance has been given by the owners.

Chief Cooper stated that the structures at 502, 508, 510 Standard avenue are in very bad condition, as well as a garage on Tewksbury avenue. Both of the structures are without doors or windows, and partly filled with rubbish.

Walter Pasch called attention to an old bakery building at Richmond and Santa Fe avenues. He stated it was being used as a roost for hoboes, and was a menace to (Continued on Page 5)

Protection For American Farmer Is Borah's Plea

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—UP—Senator W. E. Borah carried his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination into Wisconsin tonight with a plea that "the American market be protected for the American farmer."

Attacking the recent Canadian trade treaty before about 1500 persons, Borah asked: "On what theory can we hope to improve the farm situation in the United States, where we use policies that undermine and destroy the American market for the American farmer?"

His appearance here on the eve of the presidential primary climaxed his campaign for Wisconsin's 24 votes at the convention in Cleveland.

G MAN SAYS AGENTS ARE INTIMIDATED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—Edwin N. Atherton, former G-man investigating police graft, today charged that the arrest of Benny Belasco, 34, one of his undercover agents, was a deliberate attempt by police to intimidate his men and hamper his investigation.

CONTINUE PROBE
"The arrest was a typical illustration of what may happen to agents who question the extra-curricular activities of certain policemen," Atherton said. "And it is a notice that the Coscacks will start riding if you get in the way. Our investigation is going ahead, just the same."

"NOT DRUNK"
Atherton testified Belasco "could not have been drunk" when he was arrested because he had "just eight small glasses of beer" while checking night clubs Saturday night.

Belasco, Atherton asserted, was arrested by three policemen, one of whom struck him. They dragged the agent to a call box, he said, then put him in the "drunk tank" at the jail, refusing to allow him access to a telephone. Atherton also declared the police "weren't interested" in Belasco's credentials proving he was working for the district attorney's office.

Train Blown Up By Bandit Placed Bomb

MEXICO CITY, April 6.—UP—The Mexican Railway's night train from Vera Cruz was blown up by a bomb placed on a bridge near Paso Del Macho late tonight.

Advices reaching here from Vera Cruz said it was feared the death toll was high. The number of deaths could not be learned immediately.

The bomb apparently was placed by bandits.

First advices from Vera Cruz said two Pullman cars left the rails and fell into a ravine.

Other coaches caught fire when delayed by burning oil from the locomotive.

One burning Pullman was reported hanging from a bridge.

One person was slightly injured last evening in an automobile accident on San Pablo avenue near the intersection of Barrett.

Samuel H. Thompson, 41, mill-burner street, Oakland, "skinned eight cuts and bruises on the leg. He was treated at a local hospital and was later sent home.

According to police reports, Thompson was traveling south on San Pablo avenue and collided with a car driven by C. F. Pollock of Pinole as Pollock was pulling away from the curb.

Both machines were considerably damaged.

Third Heat Big Elimination Race To Be Run Tonight

After two exciting eliminations, the El Cerrito Kennel club is holding the big elimination race tonight in the third heat of the Greyhound Elimination.

Aunt Dora, Buddy, Mac, Red Dawson, Brown Jug, Barbarossa, Alder Gulch, Gallard, The Madison, Jew Undertaker and Lady Como.

Under the terms of the elimination one greyhound is to be dropped tonight thus leaving the field at nine for the next heat which will be run Thursday night. Considering the importance of the series and the calibre of competition, the greyhounds must be at their best in each elimination or the kennel loses out. The fans are given the benefit of seeing sharp greyhounds racing five-sixteenths of a mile twice a week for the rich purse. To veteran followers of the sport this is the best type of competition.

In addition, El Cerrito is presenting a special match race, arranged by the master handicapper, Johnny Greenwood, the racing secretary. In this feature dogs like Shawnee Belle, Golden Hoop and Globe Trotter will chase the electrical lure 500 yards, and there should be whiskers separating the dogs at the finish wire.

El Cerrito track will be dark Friday night. This is Good Friday, and there will be racing that night. The regular program will be resumed Saturday night.

OAKS TO MEET PORTLAND IN TODAY'S GAME

By UNITED PRESS

A tonic of left-handed pitchers seemed to have lined Willie Kamm's Mission Reds for the top spot in the Coast League Monday as the eight teams in the circuit squared away for the third series of the season.

Lloyd "Lefty" Johnson, Santa Rosa boy who has been trying since 1930 to persuade all and sundry that he was a hurler of the first water, convincingly did so with a two-hit performance against Portland Sunday, winning a 1-0 game.

Frank Lemanski, another newcomer to the regular starting lineup, and Walter Stewart, veteran pitcher, are the other portenders boosting the Missions along in the race.

Kamm, aided by this left-handed triumvirate, has Walter Beck, Otto Nitcholas, and Hollis Thurston for mound duty — and consequently looks to have one of the ablest hurling squads in the circuit. Beck, who has lost twice in as many starts this season, should get under way against Los Angeles in this week's series in San Francisco and show more of the winning form that carried him to 22 wins last year.

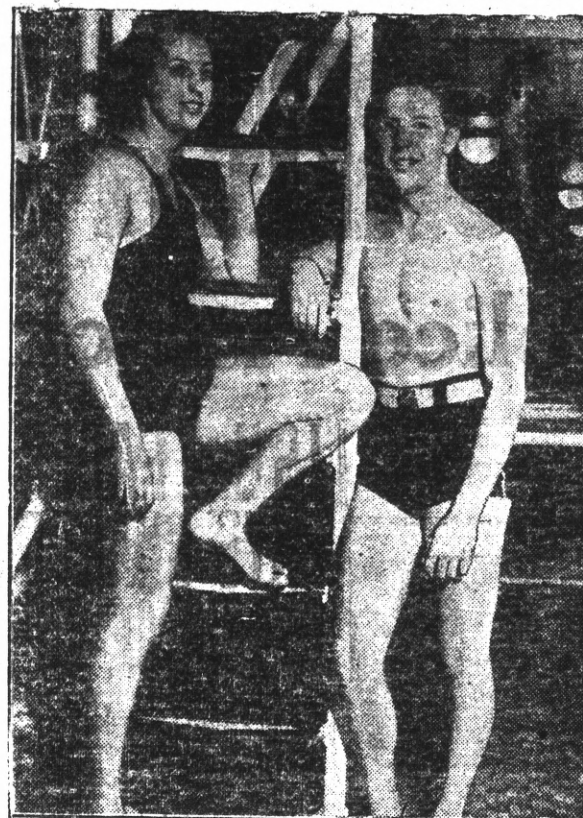

Mons. Jacques LeBellet's Angels, who picked up one win in six starts against the presently league-leading Oaks, need a decided return to the murderous hitting of last year's Angels, observers agree, if they are to halt the Missions. Mediocre pitching by the Angel staffers should prove another weak point.

Billy Meyers' surprising Oaks take on Portland in a seven game series at Oakland. The Beavers got only two games in six starts against the Missions last week, but their heavy hitters may get the range against the Emeryville team and surge forward in the percentage lineup.

San Francisco's Seals move to San Diego for what looks like an early-season contest to determine which outfit will view league doings from the second division. The Padres dropped five games in seven to Seattle last week, but Manager Frank Shellenback should have his squad primed for better things shortly—and the Seals stumbled around uncertainly, in Sacramento last week, despite the fact they won four out of five.

The cellar dwellers, Sacramento, entertain Seattle this week in a se-

ST LOUIS SEES GREATER YEAR FOR SOFT BALL

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—UP—Professional baseball players no south for spring training but 3,000 amateurs here who make softball a leading summer sport, get no southern sun in preparation for their season.

Instead both men and women players spend their winter wrestling packing crates, pounding typewriters, doing office work, clerking in groceries and other jobs.

But the athletes who play on the city's nine major softball parks are rated highly. They have their own "Dizzy Deans" and "Babe Ruths."

Among the stars of the game is Pitcher Santo Cantazaro, 28 year old Italian. He works 16 hours a day at a produce market and then pitches some of the finest games on record. Cantazaro, in more than 300 complete games pitched, has lost only four.

STRIKE-OUT KING INTRODUCED

But the Dizzy Dean of the sport is Paul Wilde, who holds the strike out record. Wilde, now a member of the St. Louis Trusts, has pitched against teams from Illinois, Minnesota, Kentucky, Ohio and Wisconsin and none of the invaders solved his delivery for more than a few scattered hits.

The game has had a rapid growth since August, 1933, when George Sisler, former major league star and first baseman of the St. Louis Browns, opened the first softball park here.

Sisler, now a business man, turned to softball to keep up his interest in the diamond sport. He formed the American Softball Association, of which he is president, and which includes clubs and leagues in the cities throughout the Middle West and on the Pacific Coast.

After defeated Bena Salto, 6-4, 6-4, and Foss won by default from Stanley Poulsen. Adult matches will be continued next Saturday and Sunday with junior matches scheduled during the week.

Girls will have their day today with Ann Poage needing Louise Hill at 1 P. M., Jean Hudson vs. Verna Johnson at 1:30 P. M., and Violet Williams vs. Helen Godman at 2 P. M.

At 2:30 P. M. girls up to 14 years of age will start with March Kong vs. Gladys Athens.

Four tennis players remained in the running of the Louis E. Davis trophy tennis tournament on Sunday. Bob Easton, James Hurley, Marjorie McAllister and Charles Foss won games in the adult division.

HORTON SMITH IS VICTOR IN ATLANTA PLAY

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6.—UP—Holding his shots true to the face of a devastating rainstorm, Larry Horton, Smith of Chicago won the Augusta National Masters Golf championship today with an aggregate of 285.

Lighthorse Harry Cooper of Chicago, who earlier in the day seemed certain of capturing the crown, faltered in his last round and came in with 75 for an aggregate of 296 and second place.

It was Smith's second victory since the tournament was established in 1934. Smith won the inaugural He came from behind with a rush today while Cooper, who hung up 70-63-71 for the first three rounds, lost his magic touch.

The final round was played under extremely adverse conditions as winds and rains echoed the tornadoes which struck sections of Georgia today.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. IDEA OF THE RED CROSS
THE RED CROSS SOCIETY, FOUNDED IN 1864, WAS ANTICIPATED IN 1743 AT THE BATTLE OF DETTINGEN, WHEN A PHYSICIAN, SIR JOHN PRINGLE, PERSUADED THE FRENCH AND ENGLISH ARMIES TO MAKE HOSPITALS SANCTUARIES MUTUALLY PROTECTED FROM ATTACK.

Bruno's Letter

Your Excellence, I see this as my duty, before this state hath my life, do thank you what you have done for me. I write this what fears in my eyes. If ever prayer will reach you, he will come from me, from my dear wife and my little boy.

In all your effort to save my life and see that justice is done, I assure your Excellence that your effort was spent in an innocent man.

I thank your Excellence from the bottom of my heart and may God bless you

Respectfully
Bruno Richard Hauptmann

REPRODUCTION OF the letter Hauptmann believed to be his last, written to Governor Harold G. Hoffman the night before his scheduled execution. The letter bitterly attacked Dr. John F. (Jaffie) Condon and charged suppression of evidence. In the above closing paragraphs he asks a blessing upon the Governor.

A golden egg, probably laid by the famous goose, will be the grand prize at the El Cerrito fire department's annual Easter egg rolling for El Cerrito children, to be held next Sunday at 1 o'clock on the lots north of the City Hall. In addition to the golden egg there will be a half dozen or so of other prizes and candy for all the El Cerrito children under 12 years of age, according to an announcement yesterday by Fire Chief O. A. Burnett.

Serving on the committee for this year's Easter egg rolling are the following boys of the local fire department: chairman, Al Baxter, O. A. Burnett, Roy Richardson, S. S. Hudson, Donald Scavright and Melvin Belfils.

Hundreds of gaily colored eggs are hidden annually for this Easter party and on Easter Sunday young El Cerrito presents an attractive picture searching through the green grass for them and each hoping to be the lucky discoverer of the gorgeous golden egg.

LAST RITES FOR BRUNO CONDUCTED

NEW YORK, April 6.—UP—The half dozen persons who will believe all their lives that Bruno Richard Hauptmann did an innocent man gathered with his widow today for his funeral and cremation.

It was held in strict accordance with New Jersey law, which specifies there shall be no public ceremony for executed felons. The only way the outside world knew that prayers had been said and that Hauptmann's body had been cremated was when smoke billowed out of the Bronx crematorium, in Queens.

CROWD

On the sidewalk a wriggling, curious crowd pressed against the gates, and it required 28 police to hold them in line so Mrs. Anna Hauptmann could observe the New Jersey laws which her husband breached by murdering the Lindbergh baby.

Present in the small room of the crematorium were C. Lloyd Fisher, Hauptmann's chief counsel; Harry Whitney, who helped Mrs. Hauptmann in various investigations after her husband was arrested; Robert W. Hicks, who traveled to Cuba during Hauptmann's last days in search of evidence that might save his life; the Rev. John Mathiesen, Lutheran minister of Trenton who walked to the electric chair with Hauptmann; and the Rev. D. G. Warner, Seventh Day Adventist clergyman, who also consoling the condemned man in his last hours.

"OTHER WOMAN"

There was nothing strange that those five should be there with Mrs. Hauptmann, but no one expected to see the pretty girl who hurried to the crematorium and held Mrs. Hauptmann's arm during the services. She was Gertrude Henkel, a handsome, blonde housewife, who almost was depicted as the "other woman" in Hauptmann's trial.

Mrs. Henkel testified that Hauptmann used to visit her on mornings when he had nothing else to do except hand out Lindbergh ransom bills to Bronx merchants. They drank coffee together, she said, and when she said it a murmur ran through the courtroom. No one ever proved that Mrs. Henkel and Hauptmann were anything more than friends, but she was a surprising moment when she showed up for the funeral today.

FORMER FELON CONFESSES TO BUN ROBBERIES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—Carroll W. Sonnickson, former San Quentin convict, has admitted participation in a series of burglaries in which more than $200,000 worth of choice wines and liquors were taken, police announced today.

Sonnicksen and Frank McCoy, 35, former Alcatraz prisoner, were arrested over the week-end following a burglary of the Tacoma Distributing Co. at San Jose Friday in which $24 cases of liquor were taken.

Police said a truck traced to the two men had been noticed near the distributing company premises several days prior to the burglary. The truck's license number was for wardens of San Francisco and member of the police bureau. They arrested McCoy and Sonnickson and recovered the missing 224 cases of liquor.

Sonnicksen at first denied participation in the rash of robberies, implicating McCoy. Later, they reported, he admitted several similar burglaries, including the recent one above $50,000 worth of liquors from the John Marino warehouse in San Francisco.

Two Drivers Are Fined By Judge

Two men were fined $50, suspended jail sentences at $20, and had their operators' licenses suspended when they appeared before Police Judge C. A. O'Connell yesterday on drunken driving charges. They were Edward Armstrong, of Oakland, and Gordon Scott, of Berkeley.

NATURE AND SCIENCE

Do you realize that in every living creature there are wonderful forces constantly at work in an attempt to regulate the life of that organism? There are definite laws regulating the structure and function of each part of the great universe. These laws are unchangeable and do not admit of the slightest modification.

In the chemical realm, we know, for instance, that air is neutralized by an alkali. Likewise, the youngest school boy knows that water always runs down hill. These are some of nature's easily understood laws.

Cause and effect work in just the same manner in the human body. If you are sick, it is always because you have broken some of nature's laws, whether in ignorance or in the same carelessness you exhibit in violating civil regulations.

Man made laws are often broken without one paying the penalty imposed, but this is never true when you disregard the unchangeable and fixed laws of nature.

Through the countless ages of man's development, the various changing conditions of man's life have increased his intelligence and his relation to society. All have made necessary different regulations of moral and social conduct, but the basic governing principle of the natural order of the physical body was made by the Creator and these have not been changed or modified in the slightest degree.

It remains only for you to study these rules and to live so in harmony with them that you may enjoy the health to which you are entitled. The science of chemistry has progressed to its present usefulness because of the indefatigable search of scientists resulting in the discovery of new laws of chemistry.

Do not forget that no new laws have been created—that the ablest scientist can do no more than discover nature's laws which have already existed since infinite intelligence created the universe. The mystery of life becomes infinitely more interesting as we search to discover the hidden and unrevealed secrets of nature.

The physical body is but the host on which you are to cross this ocean of life. Study it well and you will be a better navigator than those who are satisfied to break the natural laws of health. Build up those habits of living which bring a healthy body in a sound mind and remember, habit is either the best of servants or the worst of masters.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Cold Baths)
Question: Mr. K. B. wants to know: "Are cold baths of benefit when heart trouble has developed?"
Answer: Those with heart trouble should not subject themselves to the shock of the very cold bath and should avoid very hot baths. In these cases, the warm bath or tepid bath is advisable. Whenever the cold bath is followed by a good reaction, that is, a feeling of warmth and a rosy glow of the skin, it is all right to use it; when the cold bath brings about a feeling of chilliness and a blue tint of the skin it is not desirable.

(Enemas)
Question: Mr. Thomas R. writes: "I have been told that taking more than one or two enemas will injure a person. Is this true?"
Answer: Certainly, enemas may be continued for some period of time without any harmful results. I do not know of any patient who has been injured through taking the enema. If it is taken properly, however, the intestinal irrigation is usually employed chiefly for the relief of sluggish elimination and it seems to me that the sensible course is to do everything possible to bring about a normal elimination. The enema is a valuable emergency measure to use when you are learning how to live so as to avoid constipation but when the intestinal elimination is good the enema may be discontinued and the patient is usually glad to have the time free for other things. The main objection to the enema is that the average patient dislikes to spend so much time each day in taking it.

(Turkish Baths)
Question: Mrs. Frederick J. asks: "What is your opinion of Turkish baths for rheumatism?"
Answer: The Turkish bath causes a reduction by an elimination of water but the patient usually regains the weight as soon as food or liquid is taken. The Turkish bath is of value in some disorders because a large amount of toxic material is often discharged with the perspiration but should be avoided by the weak patient.

REPORTING POLITICS
THERE is no more exciting news assignment than reporting politics. This is true particularly in a presidential year.
United Press, with its customary foresight, last June began its federal, unbiased, impartial political coverage for the 1936 presidential campaign. Representatives of ten states met in the mid-West grass roots convention at Springfield, Ill., at that time.
Since then expert United Press political writers have been moving across the United States covering the big pre-convention stories, making cross section surveys of various states, interviewing prospective candidates, watching new political movements and reporting day by day maneuvering.
These factors insure dominant political news coverage for UNITED PRESS client newspapers with UNITED PRESS... ACCURACY... SPEED... INDEPENDENCE.

FILM BILL IS DIFFERENT AT FOX TONIGHT

A cinema escape from the realities of light love, easy laughter and manufactured mystery, to the heights of exquisite emotion and heart-warming romance, is said to be the long awaited Paramount production of "Peter Ibbotson," starring Gary Cooper and Ann Harding. It plays at the Fox theater today only on a double bank night program with "Forced Landing," a thrilling air mystery drama, starring Esther Ralston, Onslow Stevens, Toby Wing, Sydney Blackman and Eddie Nugent.

"Peter Ibbotson" is regarded by some as the sentimental classic; it has been a play, an opera, a silent film; and now in a talking version, the mood of the romance is one of an enduring love, beginning with a childhood romance. Later the lovers are separated, only to realize their love even stronger.

The supporting cast includes La Lino, John Halliday, Virginia Weidler, Douglas Drumbrille and Eddie Moore.

TWO HITS TOMORROW
George Raft, Rosalind Russell and Leo Carrillo in "I Had To Succeed," will head the incoming double program at the Fox tomorrow. The picture is said to offer a new design for living in its story which was written by Rupert Hughes.

"The Melody Lingers On" starring Josephine Hutchinson, George Houston, Helen Westley, John Halliday, Mona Barrie and Laura Hope Crews, will also screen tomorrow.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Rust Brothers, inventors of the revolutionary cotton picking machine, have refused to sell one of their machines to the Argentine Government.

It had been ordered by Governor Castells of the Chaco Province, which is speeding cotton cultivation in competition with the United States.

The Rust Brothers have been willing to forego profits on their invention in order that it may not help competition abroad, also may not throw too many Southern tenant farmers out of work.

"NOTE—Argentine cotton fields chief need labor or labor-saving machinery."

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S DIPLOMACY
Mrs. Roosevelt caused great consternation to the French Government the other day.

In her daily column, written shortly after Hitler had remilitarized the Rhineland, she discussed the moves for necessary settlement of the matter and said:

"No one denies that the Versailles Treaty was unjust in many ways and that revisions should be made. It is quite evident, however, that Germany has ignored the agreement under the Locarno Pacts, but it seems more profitable to talk this over than to fight it out again to an unsatisfactory finish and to have another peace built on revenge and fears."

Since bitter opposition to treaty revision is the keynote of the French policy toward Germany, the exact text to the French Foreign Office in Paris.

To what extent was Mrs. Roosevelt speaking for herself? To what extent was she voicing the views of her husband? That is the burning question which neither the Embassy nor the Foreign Office yet has been able to answer.

FAR EAST
The inside of the Japanese-Russian row, according to confidential cables received here, is that it springs from the same cause as the revolt of the young army officers in Tokyo last month.

The younger military demand war with Russia. They have provoked attacks on the Mongol border without orders from or the knowledge of Tokyo.

Even many of the older officers maintain that war with Russia has been postponed too long, that every month of delay sees the Red army stronger, more difficult to conquer.

The Japanese prefer to have war break first in Europe, so Russia will be occupied on both fronts. But falling this, the younger generation is willing to take on the Soviets single-handed.

This is why trouble in the Far East is so responsive to trouble in the Mediterranean or the Rhineland.

SILENT STONE
Justice Stone, known as the Supreme Court's most forthright conversationalist, suddenly has become cautious as the Sphinx.

Invited to tea with Congressmen Maury Maverick of Texas, Stone specified in advance that newspapermen must not be invited. On arriving he was careful to talk only to old friends he knew and trusted. To others he shut up.

CHEMURGY
New Dealers are anything but joyful over the Republican campaign text that the solution of agricultural surpluses is their wider use in industry.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, April 6.—The era of Swing music is bringing attention to all sorts of unsuspected heroes.

Back in 1932, Charles Dornberger and his orchestra journeyed to Montreal to fill a four week engagement. The patrons liked his music so much that Charley and boys remained for four years, playing for the dancers and also broadcasting.

A few weeks ago he returned to New York to fill an engagement at a Broadway night spot. He was greeted on every side with a great to-do about Swing music. Musicians friends whom he had known for years (Charley was born New York) took great pains to explain, in detail, just what "swing" meant. They told Charley that the demand for this type of jazz made it imperative that he fall into line and learn the new style of playing.

Quietly, Charley went to this library of recordings he had made eleven years ago. He pulled out several records and ran them off for his well-meaning pals. They opened their eyes in amazement.

They were listening to the most modern of Swing arrangements. In the eleven years, everybody but Dornberger had forgotten the records.

ORIENTAL—The New York melting pot yields fascinating bits of information about foreign races. A Columbia professor of dentistry tells me astonishing things about his Japanese patients. They have the ability to self-hypnotize themselves so that anesthetics are made unnecessary.

He recently removed the nerve of a tooth in a Japanese—an operation even more painful than a tooth extraction. The patient said: "I talk myself to sleep. You don't need anesthetic." The dentist went ahead as directed, and the Japanese never made a sound during the entire operation.

She has the habit of going around the grounds and turning on all the water faucets. It's become so bad that we must need a flood control project around here."

Love Shy
by Nelly Graf
(AUTHOR OF "GIRLS WITHOUT MEN")

Marianne Minear lives on the west side of the little town of Centerville. Embittered when Monte Thurston, her high school sweetheart, deserts her for Sabra Anderson, who is well-to-do and socially prominent, she becomes convinced that love is cruel, and money everything.

She gets a job in New York with a real-estate firm, and advances rapidly. Leonard Bailey, who works in the same office, is in love with her, but she is poor, and money is now her object in life. When the rich Harv DeSho asks her to marry him, she accepts. Then she becomes interested in a little crippled orphan, David, and determines to help him. She cannot get Leonard out of her thoughts, but she never wavers in her determination to marry Harv, with his millions.

CHAPTER XXVII
DURING the next few days, Marianne forced herself to think of little but her approaching marriage. Shopping made it easier. Harv had said, "I want my wife to be the best-dressed woman in town." Well, she would do her best to live up to his expectations.

Gleason asked her if she would stay on with the firm for a few months, and she assented eagerly, but Harv was furious when she told him. He went to Gleason about it in a rage.

Later, Gleason came into Marianne's office, looking very grim.

"Too bad you couldn't have fallen in love with someone like Bailey or Robley. Deslie says you can't even drop in on her while. Good good, I never thought he'd be that contrary! I've got so darned used to depending upon you, I don't know what I'm going to do without you. Well, you've got to come out to Sunlit Acres next Sunday. You can at least promise that."

Marianne promised: "Yes, I'll be there. I wouldn't miss it, because it will be the last time."

Her voice trailed off. She was thinking of little Dickie, who never smiled—of David at the hospital—of Leonard...

YES, shopping helped her to forget. She plunged into a navy blue suit for traveling. Smart accessories. A barrel bag. "How about this chic boutonniere of cherries, fastened to the shoulder with this clip?" The clip was a crystal butterfly trimmed with gold. Marianne looked at the price, which was considerable, then laughed, as she answered, "I'll take it!"

It was so nice to spend recklessly. Oh, money was wonderful! She could always spend what she

City May Rule Floor Shows At Club, Webb Says

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP.—Municipalities are empowered to pass laws eliminating floor shows and orchestras from establishments displaying an "on sale" liquor license, even though they have no power to regulate liquor traffic, Attorney General U. S. Webb said today.

Webb's opinion was given Dixwell L. Pierce, secretary of the State Board of Equalization, who asked for a ruling on the subject.

The attorney general in another opinion advised Ray Angela, director of the motor vehicles department, that taxes collected through the department and appropriated to incorporated cities or towns must be paid or held until called for, even though such towns have ceased to function.

Tom Mix Able To Leave Hospital
SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP.—Tom Mix left the St. Francis hospital today, fully recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

The veteran cowboy actor and circus owner was stricken last week shortly after arrival of his circus company here. He was unable to appear at scheduled performances.

Physicians at the hospital said Mix will rest for several days before resuming his circus barnstorming tour.

Riley Believes Special Meet Of Solons Is Near

SACRAMENTO, April 6—UP—A special legislative session probably will be required to obtain needed relief funds in California for May and June, unless the federal government advances additional money. State Controller Ray L. Riley asserted today.

Riley estimated that at least $2,000,000 would be needed for relief purposes in the two months.

He said the state probably would have to "find" approximately $2,350,000 to supplement $200,000 in available state relief funds and $45,000 in federal funds available for relief purposes, during May and June. The $450,000 is a portion of $1,000,000 advanced by the federal government to meet the state's emergency the remainder of that sum having been earmarked for other uses.

... a business man soon to retire discusses a question in which every community is interested

- Q. Are you a property owner here, Mr. R.?
- A. Why, yes. I own most of the block where you see that Safeway.
- Q. How do you like renting to a chain store?
- A. First rate. This Safeway's been successful. My rent comes through like clockwork.
- Q. What about your other property?
- A. Locations along here are worth more, because the Safeway makes this a lively shopping center. It's easier to rent my other stores. And rents are up.
- Q. What about owners of neighboring business property?
- A. They like it, too. The Safeway expands our community trading area—draws people here.
- Q. Then you're quite satisfied with your chain store tenant?
- A. Satisfied! Young man, listen. I'll be 66 next month, ready to retire. It's mighty comforting to feel my savings are secure.

That job is to lower your living costs—and still pay back to the farmer more of each retail food dollar.

No one man can do these things. That's why your Safeway grocer works in a business family.

Safeway buyers, truckers, marketmen and home economists team together to cut needless wastes and handling costs between the farm and you.

This way money is saved. You get better values at your Safeway grocer's. Farmers get a bigger share of the food dollar than they could before the Safeway method was developed.

And your Safeway grocer earns a better income than other men in his line of business... S. A. Skaggs, Division Manager for Safeway and Biggley Wiggley Stores, 5725 E. 14th St., Oakland, Cal.

How much did you spend for food last month? Check up. Then trade at your neighborhood Safeway grocer's for 30 days and compare your total savings!

PROPERTY OWNERS in many neighborhoods are better able to meet their taxes because of rent the Safeway grocers pay.

You and all your neighbors share in the community benefits tax money provides.

Your Safeway grocer earns his success by serving his neighbors well. He works at a job the people want done.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Nausea May Be Symptom of Many Diseases, Either Severe or Mild

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

If you lack a diverting occupation try writing a medical column. The come-back is in the correspondence and the letters are as interesting as a series of moving picture shows. I want to share one that has just come in and ask you what you would do with it. It is from the State of Washington and says: "I understand that you will answer questions of subscribers, and wish to ask one. How does one get sick at the stomach, and how should it be treated? Is it caused by indigestion?"

The signature is "D. L. The handwriting looks somewhat feminine but could be a man's. There is no indication of age, condition or circumstance. One's mind is divided by an enormous amount of curiosity. Did every person grow up without knowing what it is to be sick at the stomach?"

Fortunate one, indeed! Nausea, we call it, when it is bad enough, though the matter of degree is the only distinction. Nausea's Many Causes

For curiosity's sake I took down "Oster's Principles and Practice of Medicine," published in 1912. There under "nausea" was a list of causes nearly a third of a column long.

It ranged in connections from acute Bright's disease through a score of "rises," appendicitis, cholecystitis, gastritis, pancreatitis, tonsillitis, through measles, mumps and whooping cough to yellow fever.

The words to describe nausea range all the way from mild to distressing, disgusting, loathing and violent. And in the end, there are no better terms in which to tell how you feel than by saying you are "sick at the stomach." You don't want anything to eat, you would like to be rid of what you have eaten. Your head swims, your eyes ache, your tongue is dry, your face is pale or maybe it's flushed, you want to be let alone. After a while you may change all your terms to giddy or dizziness, sick at your stomach. The point of reference is always the same; the pit, the very bottom pit of your stomach.

If the nausea is serious enough to bring up a sense of uneasiness, they are likely to be found undigested. But the trouble need not be a matter of the food you have eaten. In many of the acute infections, I have mentioned, the nausea may or may not be present, owing to how close the inflammation comes to upsetting the nerves of the gastric area.

After acute fevers, a secondary anemia is likely to follow and this is complicated frequently by sick stomach so that the matter of adequate feeding is made difficult. The miseries of malaria are often preceded by a sense of uneasiness in the region of the stomach which sometimes ends in vomiting. The fact is that sick stomach accompanies the majority of abnormal conditions of any sort. The commonest form of sick stomach is a sick headache or bilious attack. It is usually a factor of indigestion but can come from a cold, a spell of gall bladder congestion, or any sort of upset connected with the reduction of food.

It is always a good thing to refrain from food for a time, especially if any particular thing brings on the nausea.

Dr. Chrisman offers readers the privilege of addressing questions to him care of this column. He will answer questions of general interest in his regular daily column.

Modes and Manners

QUESTION: "Please answer the following question through the Modes and Manners column: (1) If Anne Johnson married John E. Smith, how should she sign her name? (2) If they were separated, how should she then sign her name? (3) If John E. Smith died, how should she sign her name then?"

ANSWER: After marrying John E. Smith, and under any of the circumstances described, Anne Johnson would sign her name "Anne Johnson Smith" or "Anne J. Smith."

QUESTION: "When clearing from the table is it from the right or left?"

QUESTION: "At a formal meal to consist of many courses, is it proper to put out all the silver that will be needed when setting the table?"

ANSWER: It is considered in better taste to put out no more than three pieces of silver on either side of the place. The waiter supplies additional pieces.

Profile For Today

Ernie Nevers Another Western Lochinvar

By TALBOT LAKE

SELECTION of young Ernie Nevers to be football coach at Lafayette was news by no means unusual in interest to the sport pages.

It means the introduction of a handsome and capable man to the Eastern scene and is also a comment on the general case of deflation vs. expansion of the great autumn spectacle which means so much, socially, to women and girls.

By importing Nevers from Stanford, the authorities of the old school at Easton, Pa., serve notice that Lafayette is going to be in major competition. They chose in him a pupil of Glenn S. Warner and called by Warner the greatest back he ever saw or coached.

Nevers will undoubtedly give some wanted dash and color to the Eastern intercollegiate situation, as will the reorganization of athletics at Cornell.

Inviting Nevers from the Par West to a rather conservative Eastern school, strong in tradition, can be compared to the introduction of Fritz Crisler, Middle Western small town boy, at Princeton.

When Crisler was engaged some of the conservatives were frankly skeptical just as they were when Dick Harlow was brought in by Harvard. Neither one had the school's legend behind him. Both Harlow and Crisler were thought of as outsiders.

I shall not soon forget the occasion when Crisler, soon after his debut at Princeton, was asked to speak to a father-and-son dinner at Haverford, a school which just about sums up the scholarly ideals of Philadelphia. It is said of Haverford College that its faculty numbers more men listed in Who's Who than in any other college in the country.

Since football tickets nearly always are sold in pairs, and since women debentures, wives and mothers compose such a large proportion of all the spectators, the personality of the coaches is important. They are leaders and teachers of boys, primarily, and Nevers falls into this group.

Guide to Charm

Some Must Add Weight • This Spring

By JACQUELINE HUNT

TO THOSE of us who want to look trim and slender in our spring frocks the idea of anyone trying to put on weight seems absurd. However, with curves being the fashion of the moment, there are many girls who need to add a few pounds.

If you have weighed and found yourself lacking, try to live better. Check up on your health habits and see what needs adjusting. If your own conscience cannot put you on the right track again a conference with your doctor may. The first thing to do if you want to gain weight is to try to diminish your worries and get sufficient sleep and rest. Go to bed an hour earlier and take a short nap in the afternoon. The business girl cannot do this, but she can, at least, spend fifteen minutes after lunch in the rest room, knitting or reading to release any tension she may feel. Weight-gaining menus, adjusted to your special needs, should be followed as conscientiously as the over-weight person follows her reducing menus. Your day should start with a nourishing breakfast including fresh fruit or fruit juice, cereal with enriched milk, an egg cooked in your favorite manner, toast or muffins with butter and your favorite beverage.

The underweight girl will find it an excellent plan to have a light repast in the middle of the morning and again in the afternoon. Milk or a milk drink with crackers or plain cookies are a good suggestion.

For luncheon a cream soup, bread and butter, a salad of fresh fruit or spring greens and tomatoes, a simple pudding, milk or cocoa are nourishing and easily digested.

Your dinner menu might include meat or fish, baked stuffed potato, a cooked fresh vegetable, a salad, any favorite dessert, and milk. If you haven't already consumed a quart during the day.

Eat slowly only as much food as you comfortably can. Over-eating or over-loading the system with rich foods may cause indigestion and slow down weight gaining.

The thin person must have some form of exercise every day to keep the body functioning normally. Exercise, if you do not get too tired, will improve the digestion and body tone and improve your appetite.

A few copies of my booklet on "Slimming Safely" which contains menus and caloric tables, and my leaflet, "How To Be Slender," containing exercises, are still available. Just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Beauty Tips

QUESTION: "For some time I have been using vegetable rinses after my shampoos to cover up my gray hairs. The trouble is that the color doesn't seem to blend in with the natural color of my hair but leaves reddish streaks. Why is this? What color rinse should I use? My hair is dark brown."

—Mrs. Oleska.
You do not say what kind of rinse you are using. Henna, for instance, will always leave reddish streaks if your hair is dark in color but sprinkled with gray. You should be able to get satisfactory results with a temporary vegetable dye.

This is not a rinse. It is applied with a little sponge after you have shampooed and your hair is thoroughly dry.

It can be removed at any time with a shampoo.

QUESTION: "I have a bad case of dandruff and it worries me. Is there an oily coating on my scalp. Is there anything that will cure it?"

—Buddy.
There is no reason why you should put up with a "bad case of dandruff." Shampoo oftener and be sure your shampoos are thorough. Tar soap or melted castile soap to which tincture of green soap has been added make excellent shampoo preparations since they are antiseptic as well as cleansing.

As soon as your hair is dry, massage your scalp and apply a slightly astringent tonic. Massage your scalp several times a week and brush all of the loosened deposits from your hair. Wash your brush and comb daily and clean the bands of your hats frequently.

The Musical Future

The rise of demand for entertainers should encourage families to develop musical and dramatic talent in their children. Even the piano, a cheap instrument, may lead a boy or girl toward success.

"In-Between" Dress Is One Cottage Cheese Is Help Most Needed As Substitute for Meat

By IRENE VAIL

New York—The betwixt-and-between type of dress is what most women need, just as more men need Tuxedos than tails. Paris is particularly expert in creating afternoon dresses and semi-formal dinner dresses. They are types she loves and so are those that invariably find themselves on parade at showings.

Paris and London like such dresses to be softly feminine, not overlooking the fact that women in this country seem to have gone in for the idea that mannish and tailored clothes are grand.

When your invitation says "don't dress," invariably the sartorial problem is complicated. What such an admonition really means is something not too dressy, but dressy enough.

Life is vastly simplified when there is a strong line of demarcation between clothes, such as between sport and formal. One knows then just what is expected, but these "don't dress" affairs are always confusing. Especially so now that skirts are one length for day and another for night.

Most characteristic of the Modic style is the high neckline encircled with a ruff. Mainbocher, Chanel and Rochas are among the dressmakers who show dresses with this unmistakable feature, while others adopt ruffled necklines, as Alix and Chanel do. Still another version of the Margot neckline has to do with yokes; and Piguet works out this idea with white starched linen, making collars and yokes that are worn on capes as well as dresses.

A high neckline in coat collars is Paquin's tribute to the influence. Lots of ruffled, lingerie neckwear is the big outcome of this influence. The schoolgirl silhouette of Mainbocher, consisting of a fitted bodice and wide circular skirt, stems from the Margot formula.

Dishes for Today

By JUDITH WILSON

THE busy cook who is checking her file of recipes for good meat substitutes should not overlook the possibilities of cream or cottage cheese.

Cottage cheese is always inexpensive since there are no waste portions. Any that is left over from one meal may appear in a new and equally tempting guise at the next one.

Cottage cheese can appear as the main part of the meal, in salads of all kinds and even in desserts such as cheese cake, cottage cheese pie or pudding.

Baked Cheese and Bean Loaf with Tomato Sauce
Crisp Rolls
Spring Radishes and Scallions
Pineapple Betty Tea

Cream of Mushroom Soup
Bread Sticks
Tomato and Cheese Salad
Plum Tart-Whipped Cream Coffee

Bean and Cheese Loaf
Put 1 1/2 cups bread crumbs and 1 cup cream or cottage cheese through the medium blade of the food chopper. Combine with 2 cups cooked or canned kidney beans, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 2 eggs, well-beaten, 2 teaspoons grated onion, 1 teaspoon chopped parsley and salt and pepper to taste. Mold into a loaf and place in a well-greased oven about 45 minutes. Good with either tomato or cream sauce or which finely chopped chives or parsley has been added.

Tomato-Cheese Salad
Dissolve 1 package lemon flavored gelatin in 1 1/2 cups warm water. Add 2 teaspoons vinegar and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Chill. Soften 1/2 cup cottage cheese if necessary by adding a little of the gelatin. Add 1/2 cup mayonnaise. When the gelatin is thickened, add to the cheese mixture gradually, stirring well. Turn into a shallow pan, in a 1/2-inch layer.

Cut a slice from the stem ends of 6 medium-sized, peeled tomatoes. Remove a part of the pulp, sprinkle the inside of the tomato with salt and turn upside down to drain. When the gelatin is firm, cut into 1/2-inch cubes and fill the tomatoes with these. Arrange on beds of crisp lettuce and serve with additional mayonnaise.

Cheese Dumplings
Mix 1 pound cottage or cream cheese, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 eggs, 1 tablespoon milk and enough flour to make a dough that can be formed into small balls with the hands. Boil in salted water 20 minutes, drain and pour over them melted butter, sugar and cinnamon.

Candy or Cake Frosting
Blend thoroughly 1 tablespoon cream or cottage cheese, 2 cups confectioner's sugar sifted with 2 tablespoons cocoa, 1/2 cup chopped nut meats and enough cream to make a firm mass that can be molded into fancy shapes. For cake frosting add more cream or the yolk of an egg and beat until very light and creamy. Spread between the layers and on the top and sides of the cake and sprinkle thickly with chopped nut meats.

Cheese Cake
Place 5 1/2 cakes cream cheese in a bowl and beat until creamy. Add 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour and 1/4 teaspoon salt (mixed together). Beat the yolks of 4 eggs thoroughly with 1 cup heavy cream and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Pour in a spring form lined with zwiebach crumbs. Use 1 package zwiebach crumbs and mix 2 tablespoons butter and 2 tablespoons sugar. Bake evenly into a 9-inch spring form

MODERN WOMEN

Woman Over Forty Has Employment Problem, But May Succeed

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

WHEN one's business life begins at forty it is apt to be neither an easy nor a pleasant adventure. But there have been women who at that age have started a career of their own and have come through with flying colors. First of all, one must rid oneself of fear and the belief that forty is too old. And one must settle upon an occupation in which experience and training count. I am well aware that women from forty on have difficulty in finding their niche and that there should be a definite assistance for such women.

You and Your Child

Don't Let Your Child Control Your Radio

By JANE HERBERT GOWARD

I DON'T KNOW what to do about Joseph," the boy's mother confided to a neighbor. He neglects his homework listening to the radio. If I want him, I always have to wait until he is asleep and so gets off the air. It is a nuisance. It is not right for the radio to absorb so much of a child's time. Sometimes I feel like smashing the instrument."

The neighbor gave a short laugh and indicated by a wave of the hand that she considered Joseph's mother's problem trivial compared with her own.

"You have one child," she said. "But what would you do if you had three like mine? Later, it seems, all their quarrels are over the radio. Mary will try to keep her favorite comedian or crooner tuned in against Bertram, who keeps twisting the dial back to his favorite detective story. Before long they exchange blows. Or Ethel will start crying for the radio bedtime story, while Mary and Bertram are peacefully listening to another program. I don't see how you can stand to prevent the quarrels in the first place." Toward this end, there are two important "don'ts." Don't keep the radio going all the time. And don't allow the child the privilege of a half hour or an hour for listening daily, whether you have one child or several in the family. During this period, shut the doors to keep out the noise of other children if necessary. And don't interrupt yourself.

Joseph's mother shook her head. "I don't see how you can stand to prevent the quarrels in the first place." Toward this end, there are two important "don'ts." Don't keep the radio going all the time. And don't allow the child the privilege of a half hour or an hour for listening daily, whether you have one child or several in the family. During this period, shut the doors to keep out the noise of other children if necessary. And don't interrupt yourself.

But wouldn't it be more expedient to prevent the quarrels in the first place? Toward this end, there are two important "don'ts." Don't keep the radio going all the time. And don't allow the child the privilege of a half hour or an hour for listening daily, whether you have one child or several in the family. During this period, shut the doors to keep out the noise of other children if necessary. And don't interrupt yourself.

THE JACKET COSTUME

Copyright, 1936, by Fairchild. The jacket costume is done in my sheer wool, the dress a one-piece type, the jacket belted and peeked. A novelty navy and red braid makes an effective detail at the hemline of the frock and is also used as a trimming for the jacket.

It is when the woman of forty tries to masquerade as twenty and sets herself to do the work of youth that she comes a cropper. Institutions, public utilities and many organizations have need of older women. She writes:

"Dear Mrs. Martin: Eagerly I scan the column headed Modern Women each day, hoping to find something helpful or suggestive to the woman of middle age or thereabouts who wants employment."

"I know it is a somewhat difficult problem. After reading Pitkin's 'Life Begins at Forty,' I came to the conclusion that there is some good in women over forty, either trained or untrained. It seems to me there should be work for women and definite ways of finding that work."

"I am looking at the subject from a general standpoint, but my own problem is that of finding something to do in some small town."

"I have college training and eight years of experience in teaching. But it isn't easy, even at that. I have thought of secretarial work, library work, teaching craft work of various kinds, but it seems too late to begin training in these."

"I have fairly good health, with a tendency toward asthma, which can be benefited a great deal, I am sure, by a change in climate. I am not run-down-at-the-heel, tired out or thingy."

"I suppose an employment agency for older women would be something unique and would have to be run differently from other agencies. I hope you can give attention to this question in your column. I am sure it will be appreciated by many women."

"Ruth Stewart."

There is a certain technique about getting a position. When persons start out with no other thought than that they must get a job they are not apt to get one. It isn't enough.

The intelligent thing to do is sell not only yourself but an idea. The usual method is to formulate some new plan by which you can convince the person to whom you submit it that you are the only person to carry out that plan. Creating a job for oneself is a sure way of getting one than merely offering one's service with no definite plan in view or in the hope of filling a vacancy.

In your particular case, since you live in a small town, if the town itself offers no prospects it will be necessary to advertise in papers in whatever city seems most likely or to make a trip to some such place and stay there long enough to contact both by advertising and by personal calls.

Mrs. Martin will be glad to answer in this column questions of general interest. Mrs. Martin cannot reply individually to every correspondent. Names will not be published. Address her care of this paper.

Lettuce Crops
Hit By Storms

WATSONVILLE, April 6.—UP—
Farmers in the Pajaro valley today contemplated optimistically 1500 acres of lettuce ruined by heavy rains that fell over the week-end.

Many expressed the belief the loss will bolster the price they receive for the undamaged portion of the crop.

First lettuce was shipped from the valley today by S. G. Marinovich, commanding an opening price of $2 a crate. Harvesting throughout the valleys is expected to be in full swing by the middle of April.

armies have more than 19,500 fighting airplanes.

GERMANY ALONE

Germany stands alone with its army of 600,000 men and its air force of 2800 planes.

France has on her side, in event of an attack on her, 2,829,000 men and 11,037 airplanes, including three of her allies.

The figures are: France, 654,000 men, 4000 planes; Russia, 1,300,000 men, 3900 planes; Britain, 837,000 men, 1750 planes; Yugoslavia, 1,100,000 men, 650 planes; Czechoslovakia, 150,000 men, 687 planes; Belgium, 170,000 men, 250 planes.

PLANS ARE MADE

In addition Italy has 970,000 men in Europe and 3700 planes.

Military attaches here are informed that, so far as the British, French-Belgium part of the forces that would be massed against an aggressive Germany is concerned, staff contacts have been proceeding for years—in fact, ever since the World War—though few of the meetings have been made known.

It is believed that the staffs have long possessed definite offensive schemes that would be put into effect if Germany started a war.

Board Defends Riordan's Acts

MARTINEZ, April 6.—Defending T. A. Riordan, San Francisco member of the California Highway Commission, against attacks from northern California cities, the Contra Costa county board of supervisors today addressed a letter to Governor Frank Merriam expressing belief the complaints against Riordan are "unjustified."

Complaints from Redding, Red Bluff and Oroville charged Riordan with partiality to San Francisco and the bay region, saying funds in excess of their just share, Riordan says, that expenditures he has approved have been necessary by construction of the Bay Bridge.

Cruelty Is Urged As Divorce Ground

MARTINEZ, April 6.—Cruelty was cited today as the basis for a divorce by Delphina Ortiz Serda against Portoradto Serda, through Attorney T. N. Calfee of Richmond. Married July 2, 1929, the couple separated February 6, 1932.

Mrs. Serda claims her husband struck her, blackened her eyes, called her names and came home intoxicated.

from the Gospel of Luke which declares: "The gospel makes EVERY MAN my neighbor."

QUITE A SURPRISE

It is somewhat surprising to me, although I really do not know why it should be that "Lucky" should have adopted the Biblical definition to serve its purpose. Although in agreement with the good book in this one respect it ignores the injunction of the Scriptures by keeping open all day Sunday in violation of the unwritten law of decent trade practices.

STUCK IN FETTER

N I can readily understand why my search for local stockholders in the "Lucky" proved futile. No one whom I interviewed would admit that they were financially interested in this tentacle of a grocery octopus; in fact they were so vehement in their denials that I was fearful that some would be seized with an apoplectic stroke.

I was puzzled, for day after day, has not the "Lucky" proclaimed in stud horse type that it is "owned and operated by your neighbors?"

NOAH POINTS OUT ERROR

But Noah of the Webster line showed me my error. I had attempted to circumscribe and restrict the meaning of the word "neighbor," while the "Lucky" was not so picky, having apparently adopted the scriptural definition, which makes the whole world fall into the category.

If my curiosity persists I can go to New York or Boston and doubtless discover some of my "neighbors" who own and operate the local institution.

MY PROVINCIAL IDEA

However, being provincial in my ideas and outlook I prefer to think of my neighbor as the man or woman who lives within the city limits of Richmond, does his or her part for the up-building of the community belongs to local service clubs and lodges, spend his money with home-owned, and not "neighbor-owned" stores, and the person with whom I can communicate by phone without putting in a long distance call for some point the other side of the world.

Aide Confident State Will Get U.S. Relief Cash

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—State Relief Administrator C. J. Schottli and returned from Washington today confident that the Federal government will grant California the $2,000,000 it needs for May and June relief needs. Schottli and Judge Francis Carr, State relief commission chairman, last week obtained transfer of approximately $1,000,000 from the Federal relief administration to the State, about $600,000 of which will be available for direct relief. They made the trip to Washington to stress the necessity for additional funds with which to continue relief work in California during the balance of the fiscal year.

Court Again Rules F. D. R. Bill Illegal

questioning was described as "volley unreasonable and arbitrary" in the majority opinion. "Our institutions must be kept free from appropriation of unauthorized power by lesser agencies" of the government, it warned.

Aside from the effect on operations of the SEC, the decision was followed with greatest interest by those who saw in it a possible interference of the court's attitude toward the Black-Senator lobby committee's fight to be allowed to subpoena private telegrams in its investigation.

Two other cases of importance were decided today without the formality of written opinions. In effect the court approved an injunction against the collection of coconut oil processing taxes from the Iowa Soap Company on the ground the tax was unconstitutional.

The trial court held the tax unconstitutional, but the higher court's ruling would not make that opinion generally effective. It would leave in effect an injunction against the tax collection, however, and it was believed possible another processing tax "strike" might follow.

The other order served to approve a Second Circuit Court of Appeals ruling which held that gold bonds payable in currencies of countries still on the gold standard must be paid in gold or at the currency rate of $1.69 to the dollar.

Degree Work Is Held By Harbor Masonic Lodge

Degree work was held last evening by Harbor Masonic lodge at a meeting held in the Masonic Hall. Charles Pickering conducted the business meeting; Glen Parvian, senior deacon, had charge of the degree work, and H. L. Humm presided over the meeting.

After the session members enjoyed a banquet served by E. Rasmussen, Stanley G. Thompson and Henry Stramm.

On April 13 members of the lodge will be hosts to the members of the Officers Association of the Thirtieth Masonic District.

Many members plan to attend the school of instruction at McKinley lodge Thursday night.

Former Head Of Coast Survey Is Dead In Berkeley

BERKELEY, April 6.—UP—Frederic Morse, 79, former U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey inspector, died at his home here today.

He was born in Manchester, Mass. graduated from the University of California in 1879 and immediately entered the coast and geodetic survey service. He retired in 1924.

ETHIOPIAN CITY BOMBED BY AIRMEN

FILED HEADQUARTERS. ITALIAN ARMY IN NORTHERN ETHIOPIA, April 6.—UP—General Rodolfo Graziani's long expected offensive against Harar and Jijiga, key cities of Eastern Ethiopia, was believed underway tonight following heavy aerial bombardment of Sasa Bench.

Shortly after dawn, a squadron of Cancri bombers zoomed over Sasa Bench and destroyed an Ethiopian military concentration, presumably poised to help check the advance of Graziani's "motorized cavalry" on Harar and Jijiga.

DRIVE PLANNED

Sasa Bench is southeast of the two cities, and lies directly in the path which Graziani's "hell on wheels" column is expected to follow to consolidate a position within easy striking distance of the French owned Djibouti-Addis Ababa railroad, the life line of Ethiopia's communications.

The only Ethiopian army which has not met defeat is concentrated around Harar and Jijiga. It is commanded by Ras Nasir and is said to consist of 100,000 men.

PLANE SHOT DOWN

Meanwhile, Italy's northern forces pushed on past Korem, Diver, or Haile Selassie's former field headquarters, who they occupied yesterday, and captured the strategic village of Alamata, plus miles farther south on the route to Dessale.

Italian planes continued reconnaissance flights between Korem and Dessale, apparently looking for Emperor Haile Selassie, who was said to be fleeing with Ras Kassa and Ras Sijum to the imperial war headquarters at Dessale.

One plane failed to return to its base, and it was feared it had been shot down.

Pacific Coast Contributions To Drive Grow

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—UP—Red Cross officials here announced today they had collected $311,278 on the Pacific Coast area for relief of Eastern flood victims.

At the same time, they said two West Coast workers had been called to Georgia to aid in directing rehabilitation of tornado-stricken regions. They were Henry M. Barker of San Francisco and Mrs. Edith McAllister of Phoenix, Ariz.

Of the total amount of contributions received, $52,940 came from San Francisco, $28,000 from Los Angeles, $10,330 from San Diego, $6000 from Seattle, $7100 from Portland and $6300 from Spokane.

For the people on the westside, Walter Paasch expressed thanks to the council for the new piece of fire equipment that had been placed in Firehouse No. 1. He also stated that the report that Richmond stood fourth in the state in fire losses, was worthy of more than passing notice. It was his opinion that the record made was one of which the people of Richmond, and the members of the fire department could well feel proud.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—UP—The Red Cross received an official report from Gainesville, Ga., tonight that 89 bodies of tornado victims had been recovered there.

The report added that 100 other persons were believed burned to death when trapped in an overall factory fire.

William G. Hagel, a member of the Red Cross national staff who rushed to Gainesville from Atlanta today, made the report to headquarters here shortly before 7 P.M.

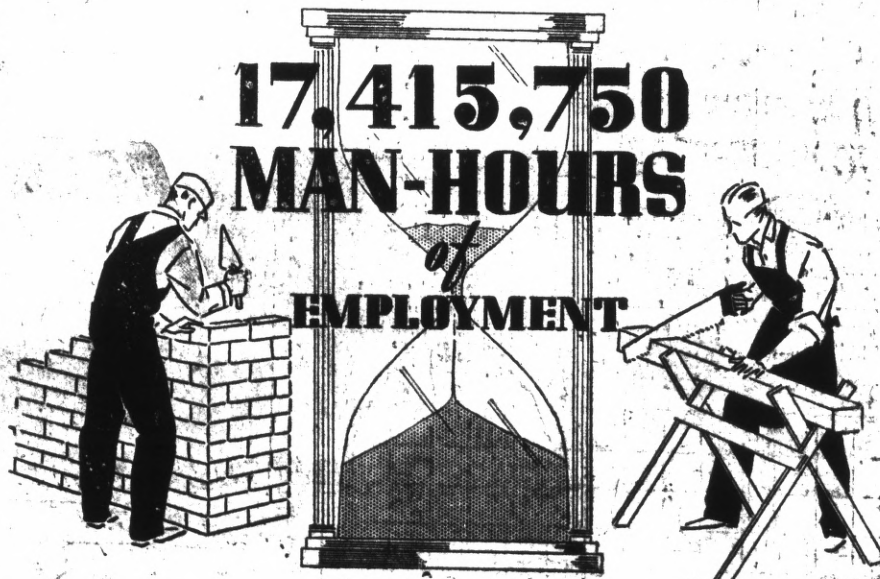

Deportation Of Renaldo Is Up To Gov. Merriam

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—UP—Governor Frank F. Merriam will hold a hearing Wednesday to determine whether a regulation for the removal of Duncan Renaldo, former screen star, to New York to face charges of failure to support his child, will be honored.

Renaldo recently completed a sentence in federal prison on McNeil Island, Wash., following conviction on charges of falsifying a passport. President Franklin D. Roosevelt granted him a pardon which saved him from immediate deportation after his release from McNeil.

The New York petition for his extradition came based on charges filed by Suzanne Renaldo, the actor's wife. She alleged that he had paid nothing toward support of their 10-year-old son, Edwin, since 1921. A New York court previously ordered Renaldo to pay $50 a month toward his support.
